ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER (FOR THE COUNTRY.)

THURSDAYS and SATURDAYS, at $6 per annum-payable in advance:

Growing Crops in Virginia under the Bankrupt Law.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Guzette :-The Bankrupt set having excepted from transfer to the Assignee in Bankruptcy the necessary household and kitchen furniture, and such other articles and necessaries of the bankrupt as the Assignee shall designate and setapart, not exceeding in value five hundred dollars; also wearing apparel of himself, wife and children; uniform, arms and equipments of soldiers: then adds: 'and such other property not included in the foregoing exceptions as is exempted from levy and sale upon execution or other process or order of any Court by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt has his domicile at the time of the commencement of the proceedings in bankruptcy, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by such State exemption laws in force in the year 1864," Numerous decisions under the bankrupt act concur in declaring that its recognition of the exemption laws of each State, as they existed in 1864, is cauivalent to a re-enactment of such laws as applicable to preceedings in bankrupteg. It is well known that the U. S. District Court of Virginia has been and is very liberal in its allowances of exemptions to bankrupts, but the exemptions under the law of this State as they stood in 1864 are small as compared with other States. Our Legislature in 1866 7 enlarged the exemption list essentially, but untortunately the bankrupt act does not recognize the State law as it stood in 1866 7, but as it stood in 1864. Consequently our Homesteadlaw does not in terms come within the exemptions of the bankrupt law; and even if it did, inasmuch as our State Courts are uniformly declaring the homestead law unconstitutional as to past debts, the prospect of relief through the Homestead provision is not flattering. One means of compensation for the loss of this expected relief yet remains which has been quite overlooked. The code of this State 1860, p. 286 enacts: "No growing crop of any kind (not severed) shall be liable to distress or levy, except Indian corn, which may be taken at any time after the 15th day of October in any year.

Before severance from the land a growing crop is as completely protected by this law. from levy and distress in behalf of its owner, as is the bed and bedding of a housekeeper. After severance it is not so protected. Consequently if, before severance, the owner goes into bankruptcy, his growing crop at that time passes under the protection of exempt property under the bankrupt law.

Its situation at that precise time, fixes its legal condition for all future time. It exempt then, it is always exempt. So the bankrupt act unquestionably regards it, since it provides (Sec. 14) that the judicial conveyance which passes the bankrupt's property over to the assignee "shall relate back to the commencement of proceedings in bankruptcy, and therefore by operation of law the title to all such property and estate (of the bankrupt) shall vest in said assignce, provided, there shall be excepted from the operation of the provisions of this section the exemptions stated at the head of this article, and provided, that the foregoing exception shall operate as a limitation upon the conveyance of the bankrupt's property to his assignces, and in no case shall the property | Z hereby excepted pass to the assignces or the | S COR. OF ROYAL & WILKES STS., E tittle of the bankrupt thereto be impaired or affected by any of the provisions of this act." In other words, the legal condition of the property attaches at the commencement of the bankrupt proceedings; property then not exempt passes to the assignee; property then exempt does not pass to the assignee, but remains in the bankrupt. Accordingly it has been decided, in re. Hambright 2. B. R., p. 157. The bankrupt act secures to the bankrupt certain parts of his estate, which are set off to him free from the claims of creditors. Of these he in fact becomes the purchaser, the consideration for the purchase being the surrender of all his estate and the sanction for his

The legal character of growing crops as an exempt class, being once impressed and fixed by the paramount authority of the bankrupt act, and that law expressly declaring that "in no case shall the property heroby excepted pass to the assignces, or the title of the bankrupt thereto be impaired or effected by any of provisions of this act,"it would be illogical and without warrant of law to hold that the bankrupt's title to his "growing ereps," as an exempt, is afterwards divested, or the property itself made general assets by the mere natural circumstance that the crop has fully "grown" or by the act of severance from the land by the bankrupt. Such a construction would fly in the face of the above law, which expressly declares that the bankrnpt's title to exemptied property shall not be impaired or affected by any of the provisions of the bankrupt act. This class of property is the bankrupt's own, as absolute ly, for all purposes, as any other man's property can be his. Moreover, it is a property justified ty the highest law of the land.

title being in the supreme law of the land."

If these conclusions are correct, parties contemplating bankruptcy cannot fail to see the vast difference it makes in their ficancial condition as bankrupts, whether they commerce proceedings in bankruptcy while they have 'growing crops' or after their crops are grown and severed, or after October 15th. CHARLES WHITTLESEY. Alexandria, Va., August 15, 1870.

Nose-bleaching is said to be a Parisian trade. The process is probably a secret, for we see a great many noses here which would not be taken for temperance signs, that have not been operated upon, and we think their owners cannot be proud of their exceedingly shining and minion." roseate hue. Senates otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to estacy the living lyre, may eall with full confidence. MARRIAGE. Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency.) Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualification, speedily relieved.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician. ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored.
This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper in-dulgencies. Young persons are too apt to com-mit excesses from not being aware of the dread-ful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to dethat understands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened.—Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspépsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestios. Constitutional Debility and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS. Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury! Persons ruined by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders and their Deadly Poison, should apply immediately. DR. JOHNSTON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruln both body and mind. un-fitting them for either busines, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weaknese of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight Loss of Muscular Power, Palphation of the Heart, Dyspepsis, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symp-MENTALLY—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of hemory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now udge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, already described, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, rearders marriage impossible, and destroys both nind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in pernither path of mature, and indulging in pernither and indulging indul cious babits. Such persons must, before contemplating MARRIAGE. Reflect that a sound-mind and body are the most necessary requirites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these the jour-ney through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those whe, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the bead, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the month ful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveller returns."

It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskilful PRL-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life. Vigor and Happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment. ler returns."
